

ROAD TRIP OPEN THREAD

Mr. EW and I decided today was the day to drive to Philadelphia. I hear they have Elves there...

If bmaz has recovered from watching his beloved Old Man River North, Brett Favre, get shellacked the other night, he's likely to come in and post something interesting ... or at least open the liquor cabinet.

If anything really exciting happens, email me—I'll check in a few times from the road.

In the meantime, behave yourselves!
