

THE HUMAN EXPERIMENT IN HERD IMMUNITY OHIO IS UNINTENTIONALLY RUNNING AT MARION PRISON

Given the disproportionate impact of this disease on the poor and those who live or work in confined spaces, especially people of color in both populations, given the political stakes Republicans are placing on proceeding as if a pandemic doesn't change ordinary politics, as more populations like the one in Marion do tests of the entire population, will present ethical questions that our society is in no way prepared to handle.
