

DOJ'S ACCOUNTING OF ITS FISA ERRORS CANNOT BE COMPARED TO THE CARTER PAGE REPORT

Many people are suggesting that the results of DOJ's review of 29 FISA applications in which DOJ IG found a bunch of errors shows that Carter Page's application was exceptionally bad. On the contrary, it only shows that Bill Barr's DOJ applies different rules to measure the Russian investigation than it has other investigations.