

ZELIKOW'S DISSENT AND ROCKEFELLER'S QUESTION

Yesterday, I showed how Steven Bradbury's May 30 Memo was a failed response to Congress' insistence that the Administration consider whether its torture program complied with the 8th Amendment. Well, that's precisely what Philip Zelikow's dissent was about.