

12 TO 16 BOTTLES, NOT 5

Lawrence Wilkerson says the number 183, describing waterboarding, may describe the number of bottles used. That makes more sense if we remember that the interrogators were using far more water than Jay Bybee said they could use.