

DONALD TRUMP JUST KILLED A MAN. NOW HE WANTS TO KILL A MILLION AMERICANS.

Donald Trump's touting of chloroquine as a COVID-19 cure on Friday resulted in a death Monday in Arizona when a couple ingested an aquarium version of the compound. Now, with 6 of his 7 most lucrative properties shut down, he wants to drop social distancing directives so he can "restart the economy". Such a move so soon very likely will kill over a million Americans.
