

IS THIS WHY ROSENBERG RECUSED?

The AP reveals that prosecutors in the Alexandria US Attorney's Office—including the lead prosecutor in the Moussaoui case—did know of the torture tapes in early 2006, before Moussaoui was sentenced.

The lead prosecutor in the terror case against Zacarias Moussaoui may have known the CIA destroyed tapes of its interrogations of an al-Qaida suspect more than a year before the government acknowledged it to the court, newly unsealed documents indicate.

The documents, which
